

SEVEN OAKS
GENERAL HOSPITAL

Seven Oaks Health Promotion and Wellness Bursary

DESCRIPTION:

The SOGH Health Promotion & Wellness Bursary will support healthcare or fitness professionals pursuing a second degree, post-graduate studies, or technical training related to a career in health promotion and wellness, including studies related to lifestyle behavior change, nutrition, health promotion, disease prevention, chronic disease management and research. Awards will be paid to the educational institution towards their tuition.

CRITERIA FOR ELIGIBILITY:

Consideration will be given to supporting undergraduate studies where the individual has shown an outstanding personal commitment to wellness.

APPLICATION PROCESS: Please DO NOT send application via E-Mail

- Application forms can be obtained through Educational Services or on Intra Links
- Applicants should submit a cover letter and the completed application form along with a one page personal essay explaining their specific career goals, how the education & training will assist in achieving these goals, a transcript of previous academic achievement and two letters of recommendation by April 28, 2017 to:

Seven Oaks Health Promotion and Wellness Bursary
c/o Educational Services
Seven Oaks General Hospital, 2300 McPhillips Street
Winnipeg, Manitoba R2V 3M3

SELECTION PROCESS:

The SOGH Stewardship Committee will review applications and approve the preferred candidates. Once advised of the decision of the Stewardship Committee, disbursement of the award to the appropriate institution on behalf of the student shall be authorized by the Board of Trustees. Should a successful applicant subsequently withdraw from or alter the course of studies as outlined in the application, a full refund of the award amount will be required.

OTHER INFORMATION:

This bursary shall be an annual commitment of the Wellness Institute operation.

Please be advised that all bursary recipient names and photographs will be published in the hospital newsletter and/or local newspaper. The recipient will be required to attend a reception to receive their award.